Become an ethical, strategic business leader.
The Online MBA From Seattle University

The Online MBA program from the Albers School of Business and Economics trains today’s business professionals to identify, understand, and solve leadership challenges at any professional level. It is designed to grow your ability to make and justify difficult decisions, to strengthen your approach to forming key relationships, and to sharpen your ethical sensibility.

Immerse yourself in an Online MBA program that can transform how you conduct business by demonstrating the power of fair process and holistic operations. Because successful business is about more than profit: It’s about people.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, Seattle University has modified several admissions requirements. Please see below for details on what applicants to the Online MBA (or MSBA) program are required to submit before the designated application deadline.

Program Benefits

- Earn a respected, AACSB-accredited MBA online
- Enjoy Albers’ proven track record of graduate employment with such notable companies as Amazon, Microsoft, and Boeing
- Develop values-centric, ethically driven business practices in a curriculum built to promote empathy, mutual understanding, and cross-functional collaboration
- Study, discuss, network, and track your grades and progress through our intuitive online learning management system
- Choose to take a two-week study abroad course in place of OMBA 5310, and learn more about international business topics alongside Seattle U on-campus students
